

Straw Flutes!

1. Flatten one end of the straw about an inch in.

2. Cut the flattened end to a point (like an arrow.)

3. Cut 3 or 4 holes into the flute, careful not to cut all the way through the flute. Use anything to puncture the straw including pencils, pens, or scissors.

4. Put pointed end of straw in mouth and cover holes with fingers.

You will need:

